"We have known Mike and his crew for as long as we have owned our house. They have relieved us of the worry and the hard work of owning a second home. No matter what we've asked -- construction, gardening, painting, cleaning, and much more-the answer has always been the same, "Sure, no problem.""

"The team at MacKinnon Property Management has consistently outdone itself in caring for our Maine vacation home. No matter where we are, we know that MacKinnon is watching over our property. Need a plumbing fix? Painting? Carpet cleaning? Furniture delivery? Whatever the need, MacKinnon takes charge of things for us. And the Caretaker Program makes sure that our home is secure, that there are no problems inside or out, and that our oil tank is full throughout the winter. Thanks to MacKinnon, the only job we have in Maine is to relax."
